I am a principal at a Jefferson County High School. This is my sixth school district. I am accused of being mean and not liking people. I don't take the time to look for parking places so I park in handicap spaces. I also do not like be bothered with people in my office or being nice to people in general. People say I am ugly and fat and resemble Cruella Deville. They say I am a rough Harley rider and have been in trouble for beating my husband. They say I have my own agenda and am only there to move up. They also say I have behind people's backs and make fun of them. I have a chubby boy. Most faculty and students don't like me. Can you guess who I?
