Whether you are an upcoming artist or just a business that needs new customers, getting media attention is never easy. I can help!

I am an award winning journalist/writer/author who is offering my services to help you get coverage.

I have nearly 4 decades managing newsrooms and I know how you get your press releases read by the right people. I sat in editorial meetings, twice a day, for 38 years. I was the one who picked the stories, so I know what works and what doesn't.

I have had great success in pitching all kinds of projects to the news media. I have worked with individuals and large corporations. I also do media event planning.

If you want to get noticed without the high cost of a Public Relations firm, I am a great alternative.

I do press release writing and pitching. No job is too big or too small.

Last minute press releases and local/national media pushes...NO PROBLEM.

I am also an expert in Media Crisis Management and do national seminars on the topic.
