Hello, my Name is Studley, and I have gotten a crap deal. The lady that I live with I tolerate only because she brings me food. I hate her other cat, both of her stupid dogs and the kids... please don't get me started. I have been in this home for two weeks and I don't want to be here.

Enough about my situation, here is who I am.

I am roughly five years old, male and neutered. I have some Siamese in me so I am a talker. I am not a lap cat, but I do love it when you pet me. i have had a taste of the outdoors and really like it so if you live on a busy street I would need to be an inside kitty.

The woman I live with cannot keep me and has plans to take me to a shelter if I cannot find a home. She has bonded with me the best she could and won't let me go to just anyone. So to try and ensure my well being, and that I will be taken care of she is asking for a re-homing fee of $40.00

If you think we would be a good fit, please don't hesitate to call, I have a lot of love to give in the right environment. Thank!
