

Hello. My name is Taylor. I am currently looking for guitarists (Lead and Rhythm) to complete my Metalcore band known as I VS I. I have been building I VS I from the ground up for the last 6 months. I am currently wrapping up recording a 6 song EP. It is fully written and very close to fully recorded. I currently have 2 finished songs up on soundcloud at www.soundcloud.com/iversusi if you wish to listen to them. I'm also willing to show all 6 instrumentals from the EP if you were interested in hearing them. You must have your own equipment, be around my age (17-24) and live in the Van Nuys area or be willing to drive to the Van Nuys area. The project in terms of sound (Ambient, "Angry", etc...) is very similar to Slipknot, The Devil Wears Prada, Sworn In, Bring Me The Horizon, and Northlane. If you don't like these bands, you won't like this project.

Also, all songs written are in Drop A, so also a guitar that is able to perform a tuning that low. I also have been experimenting with writing on 8-string guitars lately, so if you own one that will definitely be a plus.

And above all, just be a nice and easy to get along with person that likes playing music.

I'm ready to get this ball rolling and playing gigs ASAP.
I have been in and out of the states for the last few years I have plenty of connections and use and I hope as soon as I'm ready.

Here's a message to go along with it but please don't waste my time
Thank you for taking the time to read this and I hope to hear from you.
