Hello. I have a blue pit named Diesel. He is going to be a year old on the 10th of sept. He is house trained and cage trained. He is a very beautiful dog. Very beautiful eyes. I hate to get rid of him but due to certain circumstances he has to go. He is still a young minded dog so he isnt aggressive. He does look intimidating but he is in his teenage stage.He has had the 5 in one shot but thats it. Please dont flag. If he doesnt go soon i will be forced to take him to be put down and i dont want that for him he is a great dog. I have 2 young boys he is around and he does well with them. Please keep in mind that he is a blue pit so he isnt free. There is a rehome fee of $150. He will make a great family and guard dog. Please text me only. My phone isnt notifying me of emails so text is the best way. Please keep in mind that just because he is almost full grown that he is still a big kid and still can be taught alot. 1 to 8 months is considered a baby, 8 months to 3 years is a teenager, and 3 years and older is considered an adult just to put it in perspective. Again he is not aggressive. We have a rednose to that we have to rehome to. So he is good around her. I will not rehome him to someone who rents there home for the fact that he could end up being rehomed again. I dont think people who rent should have big dogs. Thats just my opinion. But anyways if your interested please text me and we will meet up so u can meet him..
