

Last Minute Handyman needed (and hauling) (Omaha)

Hi,

I have some handyman work that I need done. I had someone lined up for tomorrow (Saturday) but he is bailing on me and I'm getting my house ready for sale. So I need someone on Saturday or Sunday. I'd prefer to pay an hourly wage if your rate is reasonable. Please let me know what you charge and what time you'd be available.

Anyway-I have some areas that need to be painted here and there (spots where there were nails, scratches, stains, etc.), I need 2 fire alarms hung up, I need a new door knob put on my screen door and a new deadbolt and doorknob to put on my front door. I have all those purchased and the other supplies. I have a door that might need to be rehung since it looks crooked. There might be some other things here and there, but I can't think of anything now. I have a tool box with several tools, but you might want to bring your own in case there is something you need for the doors.

I'm actually getting my house ready for sale so if you can haul stuff to the dump or help me get it to a storage facility near my house, that would be great. If not, that is OK.

Please email me via the Craigslist email address and let me know a phone number to reach you and how much you'll charge.

Thanks,
