Need some help around the house? Need someone to help with discipline, potty training, morning and bedtime routines? How about a fun friend to take your toddler to the park or playground? Just need more helpful hands to do all the kid-related tasks in your day? Interested in your children learning a new language?

Consider Go Au Pair and a cultural childcare experience for your family! Your au pair will live with you as a member of your family. Au Pairs from Go Au Pair stand out, since they get infant & toddler-specific safety training, and there is no extra charge for being infant qualified or caring for more than one child! That's up to 45 hours of flexible, caring & culturally enhancing child care for as low as $7.53 per hour (not more than 10 hours per day), with part time options available. The U.S. Dept. of State regulates the Au Pair Program for cultural exchange visitors; Go Au Pair sponsors the Visa & handles all paperwork & logistics for you.

Parents get built-in consistency & coverage, allowing time to focus on just one kid, help with homework, or attend that recital while the au pair can assist with kids' laundry & light meal prep/clean-up.

Even the youngest of kids benefit from foreign language introduction & exposure, making them overall more creative & happy. All you need is an extra bedroom for your au pair's privacy.
