Need a website for your business? I have the perfect solution!
 Don't go another month without the polished image that a new website will bring your business.

My name is Brad and I own ThinkShore Media Web Design. I pride myself on knowing what my customers want... A professional image at an affordable price. Add on to that high quality design, efficient customer service, and a small business focus, you will have a total package that is dedicated to the success of your business.

I will not overwhelm you with an infinite amount of confusing choices geared towards individuals familiar with computer design. I keep it simple because that is what my customers want. I am a Web Design professional who knows how to make the most out of a business website. I will design a website what will make your company stand out. . . all in a timely and inexpensive manner.

All websites are around $300-$500. No hidden or add on fees. So check out my portfolio of happy customers, visualize your website up and running, and make a great decision for the future of your business.

Questions Feel free to give me a call at or send an email. I am local here in Kansas City so will be able to meet up to discuss your needs. Thanks!
