STILL LOOKING FOR TOMMY. A black and white male (N) with a Batman mask. Young, about 4. Last seen April 24, on Ashbury Ave between Lee and Vallejo.

Tommy's face top is black with a white streak from forehead to a white bib, down to his chest and stomach. His paws are white. Right paw has white going up high. Left leg has just a white paw.

You may also call me at any time on my cell

(I will be posting a look-alike cat found and brought to me. So you will see him...more white on his legs is the major difference. I took him in anyway and am looking for his. :) )
