$23,900. I am selling my 2004 Alfa Gold 5th wheel travel trailer, model 38RLTES 253, which has a current book value of approximately $30,000. Alfa is no longer in business, but when they were, they manufactured top of the line luxurious units. I have lived in this RV for eight months and have updated most of the mechanical systems, including the furnace, air conditioner, water pump, converter, outside shower, and step motor. This 5th wheel has tons of storage. The flooring is new as of last December 2014, including carpet and wood. Included in the price is an 8 foot dark brown leather couch (designer - Cindy Crawford); and a custom made recliner from Arhaus Furniture. There is a full size queen mattress on the bed. The attached photos show two club chairs, which are not in the RV now. There are three covered slides, including the living room, an office/desk space, and the bedroom, and a large retractable awning over the entry door/patio area. This can be moved to your land or an RV park, or live at the RV park in Villa Ridge,.
