Vajra is about to embark on our next journey and we are looking for a kick-ass drummer who can tour, rehearse at least twice a week, is a team player, can play to a click, has his own gear, and is comfortable with odd time signatures.

We are a touring band with national commercial rock radio play (and SiriusXM/Octane).

Rolling Stone Magazine mentioned us as "Must-See Act" to watch at the Loudwire Music Festival:

AXS Magazine mentioned us as one of the "Most Underrated Bands" at the Festival:

Our video was debuted on Loudwire and Loudwire said "It's time to get to know Vajra."

And our video is on the Top 10 music videos for 5 weeks:

We toured and played with National acts, and just returned from a tour out West and played the Loudwire Music Festival with Rob Zombie, Weezer, Linkin Park, Halestorm, In This Moment, etc.

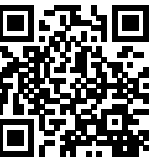

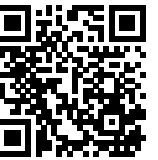

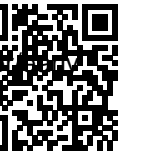

We are looking for our next drummer and want you to join our band. We are looking for a drummer who can tour, rehearse at least twice a week, is a team player, can play to a click, has his own gear, and is comfortable with odd time signatures.

Serious inquiries only and no hired guns. We are not making money to cover our costs yet, so you have to be able to sustain yourself and make it work.

And please respond with links to your playing.
