I have a very sweet hairless cat available for adoption. He is 3 1/2 years old. He has been neutered. He loves people and has been very well socialized with kids. You can pick him up, bathe him, and clean his ears without any problems. The only reason I have to let him go is because I am pregnant and he need more attention than I can give. I would love to see him go to a family that knows about the care of this breed. You can call or text
