A friend and I are looking for six to seven other people who'd like to join a fantasy league. I know it's late in the preseason to start one, but I was on vacation all of last month and the two leagues I normally play in are already set. There's three people who want to play now, so at least five would perfect. It will be done through ESPN, default scoring. Waiver wire and other topics can be all agreed upon if the league gets enough members. Football knowledge is obviously recommended, but if you just want to try it for the first time, this league is for you! We just ask you be at least in your twenties. We probably won't ever meet, but playing fantasy football with teenagers is just annoying, from past experience of playing in a league with people I don't know. We're looking to draft Wednesday night at the latest, so shoot me an email if you're interested! Oh, and it's obviously free. We're just playing for!
