Milwaukee, you suck. I moved here two weeks ago from a very very big city.

I visited Milwaukee very often, and usually found myself hanging out in bayview.

I am the typical artsy, nerdy, tattooed, bearded, musician type that is all over bayview. The city charmed me. Every time i came to visit, i met friendly people, and found cool things to get into. Plus,who could pass up 10 craft coffee shops in a few miles. I figured, this is where people like me go to settle down a bit.

So i make the choice. I found a job, packed up my stuff and made the move.

Week 1. The job goes to shit, someone came into my apartment when i wasn't home and i haven't had a single conversation with anyone. Harassed 3 times by police for no reason.

Week 2. Going broke, found a new job but cant start til next week. Still haven't had a conversation with anyone other then the additional 2 instances with more rude ass police, and 4 parking tickets even though there was still time in the meter.

Everyone stop starting, or say hello.

Milwaukee, Please stop shitting on me.

Please and thank you.
