I am looking for a nanny position with a loving and professional family. I have a Master's Degree in Education and have worked as a librarian, elementary school teacher, and a special education teacher. I desire a long-term position for one or multiple children. I have a vast understanding of the developmental stages of children, extensive knowledge of children's books, am very organized and responsible, and can easily perform household tasks and errands. I enjoy keeping children active and engaged through crafts, cooking, outings, creative play, and games. I prefer to watch your children in your home. I have an outstanding driving record and view safety as a top priority. Thank you for your interest, and I look forward to meeting you and your!
