Selling off the tires and wheels that came with my car , I recently purchased my car in 2014 and I switched out the 22in rims and wheels that another owner put on the car and i changed them out for all seasons which i currently have on , I do not know much about them I bought the car used from someone else , I dont know how many miles where driven on them , I can tell You that they are

Nexen Tires 265/35/R22
Joe Martin 22in rims

They Look like 939C Martin Sharktooth wheels online so im guessing that is what they are , They also Have chrome pitting and alot of chrome plating coming off them , That is how i purchased it , So im guessing they will need to be re chromed , Online im showing them as about 500 per rim , the tires have a good amount of wear on them as well . im selling all 4 and the tires for 500.
