THE LOCATION

The International Entrepreneurship Center is located in vibrant affluent Newton, a few miles west of Boston, with easy Parking and easy access to Logan International Airport. From Wikipedia: Newtonville is a village of Newton, Massachusetts. Also located in Newton is the MBTA Commuter Rail train station, which is serviced by the buses (phone number hidden), and 556. Newtonville is a predominantly residential neighborhood. The urban section of the road is home to restaurants, bakeries, and cafes, several banks, a specialty camera store, a pet store, multiple fitness centers, and dry cleaners. Across the turnpike on Walnut Street, you can find more shops including Newtonville Camera, Inc., which may be the largest single location camera store in New England. Also, on the north side of the turnpike, on Washington Street (which runs parallel to the Massachusetts Turnpike) you can find many more restaurants, hair salons, barber shops, nail salons, liquor stores, Newton's largest Post Office, and a Whole Foods supermarket.
