I lost two sets of Acura keys. . .at different times. My memory is horrible so I have no idea where the could be other than on the side of a road somewhere. I'm notorious for putting things on the top of my car and forgetting about them. Both times, I think I put them on my husbands car and he drove off with them.

I lost my spare keys on 9/7/15 around 830pm in the area of Thousand Oaks neighborhood on route 10 near Calvary Baptist Church. They could be anywhere from the Pizza Hut to the Camden intersection.

My other set of keys have been lost for about 2 months. They have my acura keys and a few extra keys on it but more importantly, they have my cats name tag (a pink/purple heart with Luna and my cell number on it). Please let me know if you've found!
