CASTING CALL: seeking any creative escorts, my passion before little ones, to help me curb excess appetite this end of summer! my own kid is a little too big now, for that sort of thing ... but I already introduced him to your kind, starting at age 5 - his name starts with an E ... any fond memories?

"LOOK MOM, HE HAS A LONG THING LIKE A TAIL COMING FROM BETWEEN HIS LEGS!" was my too bad so sad brat of a kid at age 5 talking to police and ICE. (the way to make your kid shut up, involves just a little bit of belt action, know what I mean?)

any daddies out there thinking like me? I mean, what else IS there to do in Omaha, except hang out with cows? it's dead ville. so if you are at least 14, maybe 13, wanting to pocket some extra cash, drop by the mansion any time. Or ... I work in the old market, computer and hacking gigs (you think your kids are safe on line, wink win,? not with predators like me running database work and voip lines and mobile apps ... I can break into anyone's cell in 20 sec flat!)

I once said that, taking kids to hookers wasn't anything any other daddy would do if he thought he wouldn't get caught. That was 10 years ago... omaha has taught me M A N Y more fun outlets for warren buffet tax free dollars, if you know what I mean. Drop by and bring your own kidlets ... we can have a real FAO SCWARTZ NITE out. The great thing about brick houses and very cold weather - i mean, omaha is always ugly and brutal, 50 mph winds, right? - is that no one outside hears what goes on inside. We can even kill a kid, in my basement, and no one will hear.

PS: hey doug and teresa and david ... wanta have another kiddie barbeque at offutt this weekend? them fly boys L O V E me when I bring the live action over there! how's carter lake? christina turning any you know what yet? (starts with a t)
