I have a 7 week old puppy ready to go to a new home. He is very handsome, his name is Sue. His parents are a great pyronese and pitbull. He is already a smart boy. We just don't have the time for him as he needs. I'm not sure as to how big he will get I would assume he will be a medium size dog. He obviously will need to be trained because he is still just a puppy. We would like a small re-homing fee of $75. If you have any questions please feel free to text or.
