

AD amp Assistant Producer needed for micro budget indie series (New Orleans)

Location Louisiana
<https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-679061-z>

We are looking for someone who actually wants to produce films, who has some experience on a set and who just wants to get more actual production experience.

You will do call sheets, send emails to the main producer with updates, make sure all details are fully confirmed and coordinated for the shoot days. The main producer will do most of the work however your job will be vital.

We shoot on Sept 24th and 25th and need you asap for pre production.

On the day of the shoot, we'd love you to be the right hand man/woman to the director or producer. If you have AD experience, please let us know too, we are seeking and AD who can help keep us on schedule.

This is an unpaid position, but you will gain lots of experience along with an IMDb credit and you will be working with some actors who have some pretty good credits. The quality is very high in this established series. This is great for those that are students or just starting out in the industry. Please send resume if applicable and reasons why you will be a good fit for the position. Also, if you have a snapshot photo that would be great, we don't care if you are pretty, ugly, fat, skinny, etc, we just want to get a feel for you from your photo, thanks! Looking forward to your submissions.

Please only respond if you are a friendly person, hard worker and do not have an ego, we are a great team, we work hard, get a lot done but we are nice to each other and only want those who truly want to have fun while creating an amazing!
