 Notes BMW's X3 compact luxury SUV handles like a sports sedan. This '06 model is a great alternative for sport sedan shoppers who require just a bit more utility in their compact luxury vehicle. The X3's 225-hp, 3.0-liter inline six sends power through a five-speed automatic. Reviewers preferred the Steptronic automatic, which offers a manual shifting mode for all-around ease of operation. The xDrive all-wheel-drive system with Dynamic Stability Control receives rave reviews. The X3 is appropriately equipped for rugged everyday use. Standard safety features abound: xDrive, Dynamic Stability Control, ABS, electronic brakeforce distribution, and more. For those seeking SUV features with sport-sedan handling, we recommend that you put this BMW X3 at the top of your short list of choices. Print this page and call us Now...
