Young male guinea pig for rehome. He is less than a year old. I have two other cavvy's that he is not getting along with. Fights are becoming frequent and it's not fair. There is no rehoming fee, since he does not come with a cage, but you will need to be able to provide a good home. He is skiddish and will need someone with patience and time. Would do well with a companion if you are knowledgeable at pairing, or have a fixed female. I do have a small animal carrier if you need one. I'm in everett, but can drive to meet on a.
