Looking to get the joy back in your life? Are you off track and overwhelmed? I would like to partner with you. As a Life/Business Coach, I will help you establish a new direction. Together we will develop healthy action items to bring you a sense of freedom. Or, maybe you just want someone to talk to without having the insurance companies making a permanent record of it.

I have almost 30 years experience working on both the local and national levels as a counselor, consultant and educator. As your Life/Business Coach, I offer you conveniences that you will not find anywhere else. I do not keep regular office hours. Depending on your needs, I can offer hour 24/7 availability.

All information is kept confidential for your privacy. I am currently a member of the International Christian Coaching Association, International Association of Professional Life Coaches, American Association of Christian Counselors, Chaplain Fellowship Ministries, International Association of Peer Supporters, American Association of Christian Counselors -Addictions & Recovery Division and the National Guild of Hypnotist.

Please visit my website to see if Phone Coaching is a good fit for you.
