Do your fine oriental rugs need cleaning? If it has been more 4-5 years since they were professionally cleaned, the answer is YES!

Oriental rugs are artwork for your home's floors and just like valuable artwork, they require professional cleaning to preserve their beauty for years to come. Traditional carpet cleaning methods will irreparably damage the foundation and wool fibers of your fine rug. We carefully clean each rug individually. Our process involves thoroughly removing the dust, then hand washing and finally air drying your rug.

We are offering a 10% discount on any rug cleaning order through December 30, 2014.
