I live in a very small one bedroom apt in Arlington, on the bus line. I was injured in a fall on my apt building's unlit icy stairs this winter and hurt my back and neck quite badly, and have as a result let my apartment become a frightful disaster area. I have hired several people this weekend to help me clean it up in terms of getting rid of trash, sorting through clutter and putting things where they belong, and so forth, but on this TUESDAY, and it has to be TUESDAY, I need a person or service to come in and deep clean the apartment -- really scrub the floors where there are very bad spots, thoroughly sweep and mop throughout, wash all surfaces (dusting won't be enough -- they need to be washed), scour the bathroom, clean the stove top thoroughly, etc. I have limited funds so I am taking bids for this work. I do have two cats and can lock them in the bedroom while you are working in the rest of the apartment, but can't remove them for your cleaning you will have to deal with their presence.

If you are interested in this job send me your name and company name if applicable, how many people you would bring to do this, when you could come, and what your price would be. As I said, I am already spending money I don't really have, but i have to have this work done, so give me a reason to spend the money on your service.

Thanks.
