TOP TIPS FOR SUCCESS AT OPEN MICS

Have you read my article I recently penned about how to be successful at an open mic? I've learned a ton observing songwriters the past 6 years directing Nashville Rising Star! Learn from my observations at: <http://www.nashvillerisingstar.com/open-mic-tips/>

NASHVILLE SONGWRITERS ALLIANCE

We're launching a new organization for songwriters called Nashville Songwriters Alliance. SomeÂ have asked me if this will be like NSAI. Not at all. We won't have paid membership, and it won't be open to everyone. This will be a "small in numbers, exclusive group" of top up and coming, undiscovered songwriters who reside in the Nashville area and who are serious about their songwriting. Not for beginners, not for those who are already established. This is about launching new songwriters and new songs. Â I will be going through my list of songwriters and emailing invites soon. I'm excited about this new venture and adventure! Stay tuned and write some tunes!Â
