Hello

I am in the Matsu Valley and have a business idea and I need your help and willing to pay the right person to work from anyplace they want - all you need is a computer.

Me and others will be working on this at the same time so you won't be alone on this project.

I am looking to expand my eCommerce site by advertising on CL around the country. It's a big country so I can use some help and willing to pay for it...

Here are the minimum skills you should have...

- ~ You should be able to post ads on Craigslist
- ~ You should be detail oriented - these are pretty short ads so it's not hard to just cut and paste when you get it perfect the first time.
- ~ Some light HTML would be good - but not required. I can teach you what you need to know in 20 minutes so don't let that stop you from applying.
- ~ Be honest and reliable please. If you can't do something or just don't feel like it - don't string it along - just say so and it's cool, I will look for others interested.

The Pay:

I am asking your help to make me money and if this business plan works well, I will reward you well.

I can show you how to post an ad in as little as 2-3 minutes with some easy to learn tricks (Copy-paste-post)

If the posts start producing results, I will pay you more per post, again; if you do an honest job and this idea works.

I don't want you to give up your day job or looking for a regular paying job. This is something you can do in your spare time a few hours a week from any computer. But again - be willing to take your time and do it right or you will be wasting both our time and throwing away potential better income for us both.

For business competition reasons I am not going to tell you about my site except it is not porn.

I don't care if you have a criminal record, sketchy past, a drug user, part-time hooker or whatever.... that's none of my business what you do on your own time except I wish for you a happy life. Our relationship is strictly mutual profit and if we all do our job - we all get paid.

I'm sorry this is long - but I hate the ads that tell you nothing then expect you to tell them all about you and they don't say jack about what they want you to do or how much it will pay.

To apply all you have to do is post a creative ad on CL (anyplace in the US is OK) selling something that's obviously over-priced (so you won't get bugged about it from others)... do not put your phone number in the ad - just think about it, be creative, include any picture you want, then send me a link.

It does not have to be perfect. I am looking for spelling - clarity of your sales pitch - and an indication that you can post a fairly good ad at least. Make it short - not long (like this one LOL)

OK that's all I can think of to say about it - so if interested - send me that link and I promise I will reply to each one as I am looking for 2 or more people on this project.

Thanks for.
