Unfortunately this is one of the most desperate things I've ever done, but I am not sure what else to do!

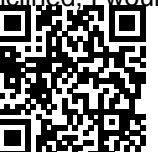

I have rent due on the 3rd and am in need of a loan for $1150. I PROMISE I am an honest person - and I understand that most people will read this and dismiss it because it's too risky. But I intend to be very forthcoming with whomever could assist me - I will even meet with you in person in a public place to verify I am who I say I am and give you certain information about myself, like my credit score, monthly income, and employment details. I also don't mind setting up a repayment plan if you wanted to charge me interest, and intend to make payments through PayPal which I know is absolutely secure, unless there is another method you would prefer.

I do have a full-time job, but I am only partially on the books since I am a nanny, which makes it hard for me to get a personal loan. I've tried a ton of routes at this point but keep on getting declined since it pretty much looks like I make minimum wage. But I have had only one late payment in my life - which accounts for the past 8 years that I have had to make various payments like rent, loan repayments, bills, etc.

I am also an extremely hard worker and am willing to work for free for you instead, or as part of the repayment, if you so choose. I am a college graduate and have worked at a law firm for 4 years as well, and I currently work as a part-time personal assistant on my days off from nannying, so I have great administrative skills, and my boyfriend who I live with is an awesome handyman and could offer a range of services too.

I am NOT some type of scammer, criminal, thief, drug addict, gambler, etc. etc. etc... I have never even received benefits from the state. Again, I know this is information people will take at face value, but I am being 100% honest here.

I know this is a lot to ask, but I am really hoping the right person will want to work with me. I have a lot to offer in return and will be eternally grateful since this is the first time I've ever had an issue with paying rent, and do not want to ruin my future chances with any landlords since I do intend to move later on down the road. Please, if you are in the position to help me out and feel so inclined, I would greatly appreciate it.
