Looking to see if there's anyone out there that's into doing a kind of a classic or vintage informed art/progressive rock type of thing. I have a few projects/tracks I'd like to incorporate but would like to turn that and future material into more of a group/collaborative effort. Looking primarily in this order for drummer/percussionist, keyboard player, male vox (who hopefully can play instrument as well), bass/2nd guitar player or multi-instrumentalist.

I'm 34, would prefer around that age range give or take.
Thanks for your.
