You'll see "WHOLESALE" mattresses on CL from many big retailers. But how can they be "wholesale" if they have a bright, shiny retail location with a hundreds of mattresses, expensive TV advertisements and a delivery truck?

If you truly want "wholesale" give me a call. You will find just a limited assortment of brand new mattresses to try. No huge warehouse costs, no inventory costs, no delivery truck costs (I can put you in touch with a cheap delivery service if you need it). Call for all the details.
