This Unique girl and boy, are very loving, affectionate Teacup Tiny 12 weeks old Yorkie. True to the breed, They ADORES their family both kids and adults, and they love strangers. We are very busy with work Which is actually the only reason we need to place them. We have 4 kids and with that, we have a lot of kids and casuinstay out all day especially during school so they and going all day, and they just doesn't like it. They would do amazing in a stable home that doesn't care in all alone day.They are a beautiful, clean, sweet as sugar type of YORkie. Don't get me wrong, They are a social, friendly dog. So serious, long term inquires only please.They are housebroke, crate trained, young at barely 12 weeks old, still in-tact, and we have her papers ready to go.Re-homing fee applies $250. If interested in meeting them have more questions, or would like additional pictures Please text me
