We are currently a 4pc country/rock cover band looking for a 5th to provide the low end. Our current Bass player was having difficulties with his new job schedule and was not able to make it to gigs or practice. If your looking for a band for full time work we are not the band for you. We range from ages 25-50 and all have full time jobs. We would like to start playing out at least twice per month on Saturday nights. We practice at least 2 Sunday evenings out of the month. This is more for fun than the money although we have had several paying gigs. We have pro PA gear and use in ears when practicing and playing out. If your looking to make some new friends and love playing music for fun, give me a.
