hi

i have room in my van for one rider plus a backpack.

i am driving during the day and camping in national forests at night, and i love it.

i have an extra tent, sleeping bag, mat, and folding chair for you if you need it for the long haul to Denver or dfw. or anywhere in between. also i will drop you to your destination as soon as we get there.

i will be leaving Jackson today or tomorrow, i am flexible in that range as when to leave.

Laramie - $70

Denver $125

DFW - $250

Austin - $275

if you ride to Denver or dfw i will serve a free breakfasts at camp.

then we grab something before going to camp for dinner i simply find the campsites, as well as free and cheap

if you are going to Laramie, you can stop.

otherwise if you are going to Denver or dfw then its all about a day of driving and camping before sunset, then leaving after breakfast, in repeating till arriving.

have been on the road all summer to Alaska now back to Texas.

i am easy going and kind and legal in all aspects.
please you be too!
