Professional audio engineer with over 25 years of experience in the music industry. If you have a song/songs that you are unhappy with how they were mixed and produced, I can remix and master them for you if you have the individual track files in WAV or MP3 format. Prices vary depending upon how many songs you have, how many individual tracks are in the song, etc. If you want your music professionally mixed and mastered email me today. Also, we are now offering professional website designing and building for bands/musicians, at very reasonable rates. Email for details/specific information and pricing. We also do all website design and building for business/companies as well ! Peace.
