From B+H Photo:

"The Sennheiser E912SW is a pre-polarized boundary microphone optimized for speech and instrument pick up. Its half-cardioid condenser element is ideal for capturing theater productions, discussions in boardrooms, conferences and more. A programmable, momentary switch provides push-to-talk, push-to-mute and on/off functions. The compact, flat profile is ideal for pianos and other instruments best captured while surface mounted. An integrated preamplifier provides a standard gold-plated XLR output right from the microphone. "

Please put "Vocal+Instrument" in the email subject so that I will know a human being is responding. Thank.
