We're scouting new talent for our online music collaboration website. We recently launched in Beta and are slowly building a fantastic community of talented musicians. Singers, guitarists, drummers, audio engineers - we need you ALL. :)

The purpose of ProCollabs is to provide a reliable online platform for musicians to be able to unite, socialize, and collaborate in the writing and producing of original music. Our ideal clients would be high caliber songwriters, musicians, engineers, producers and music industry professionals from all around the world.
