I'm looking for a singer to form a band. I write and play bass and guitar.

I have a set's worth of material ready to go. I'd definitely be into learning your songs or collaborating on writing more.

I'm free weekday evenings/nights and weekends and want to practice AT LEAST 2 times a week. I'm very motivated and have practice space, transportation, and equipment.

Here are some rough demo songs of mine.

Influences: Nirvana, Pixies, Fugazi, Breeders, Sonic Youth, Alice In Chains, The Yeah Yeah Yeahs, Queens of The Stone Age, Stone Temple Pilots, Soundgarden, Against Me, PJ Harvey, the Strokes, etc.

I'm mostly interested in a singer at this point, but drummers, bass players, or guitar players who are interested.

Send me an email with some info if you're interested.
