Stormy (short for Stormageddon: Destroyer of Worlds) He is super adventurous, not shy by hedgehog standards, and very spunky. My vet said that he is the most social hedgehog she has ever handled! He is about 1 yr old and is light brown and cream speckled with matching cream racing stripes on his sides. I am asking $200 for Stormy and all his accessories (which is about half of what I paid initially for it all): 2' x 3' pet cage, 1.5' x 3' pet cage, water n food bowls, California wheel, 12' adventure ball, igloo, CHE lamp and bulb, outlet timer thingy, temperature sensitive switch thingy, and the fleece liners I made for the larger cage.

Please, email Rachel via the Craigslist link with any questions about Stormy and serious.
