I have a 7yo/f cat that needs to go to a good home. She's wonderful, not aggressive, and doesn't scratch furniture or people. My housemate has a corgi, however, and they do not get along (he attacks her, and terrifies her).

She's a good cat, and I'd like to find a good owner to take care of her. I have all the toys and supplies (including 2 months of food). If you're interested, please contact me to schedule a meeting.
