Aloha,

We are looking for a marketing and promotions manager to assist in developing relationships, sponsorship and raising/managing funds. Pay is offered and will be based on performance. Pay is negotiable.

FAQ's:

- What about graphic design needs?

answer: We have a graphic department that will handle all your design needs

- How many hours are expected to be worked during the week?

answer: All your hours are set by you. As long as you have a computer with internet access and a cellphone, you can work from the convenience of your home. Two to four marketing meetings per month will occur, but most meeting material can be discussed online. You will also be meeting with investors to discuss sponsorship.

- Do I need experience?

answer: Film, television and online media experience is a plus, as you will be helping to market and align corporate relationships and sponsorship for a film.

- What is expected of me?

answer: Creative, hardworking, team leader who has the ability to write and communicate sponsorship packages within our marketing department. Be able to attend sponsorship meetings in town and oversee all sponsorship needs.

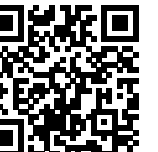

- When is the film opted to be completed?

answer: Spring 2016!

Where will the film be shown?

answer: Theatrical, television and digital

Thank you and we look forward to meeting!
