I am a disabled woman searching for caregivers. Experience is required, CNA certification preferred. I use a hooyer lift to transfer and will require assistance with dressing and hygiene tasks as well as homemaking including light meal prep. Morning and evening shifts available both M-F and weekends.

Also seeking a live-in caregiver. Again, experience is a MUST and CNA certification is preferred. I require assistance to reposition during the night and need occassional help with catheter care.

All applicants must be reliable and hard-working and must pass a criminal background check.

Please e-mail me to set up an interview.

In your e-mail, please tell me why you think you'd be a good fit for this job.

Also, please include the position you are applying for and your general availability.

Hourly rate of pay will be increasing soon!!

Thank!
