Urgent Child Care needed for this coming weekend Oct 9th, 10th & 11th.

Friday 6pm till about 4pm on Sunday.

Child is an independent 9 year old fun loving and vivacious boy.

We are traveling for business this weekend and the no longer have child care givers for this weekend.

Pay is available for someone who is responsible, likes children and is young at heart. Must be willing to play, interact and take full responsibility for a kid. We also have a cat and small dog that could use some love and attention as well. Our boy, is easy going and very likable. The right fit would have their own mode of transportation and able to spend the nights in our home.

Please email if you are interested and a family friend will be vetting these responses, checking references and sending only qualified candidates on to us for further contact.

Thank you for your time. We look forward to discussing our needs further with the right person! This would hopefully turn into something you could do from month to month , as our jobs have us traveling pretty.
