Looking for an experienced DP/Lighting professional to film a hilarious new web series!

5D camera, light kit, locations, casting, etc are all confirmed. Just need someone with a great visual eye, and camera & lighting expertise to really make it pop.

*Important: This is a one day shoot on either October 31st or November 1st (depending on everyone's availability). If you have Halloween plans that would interfere with an all day shoot, please do not apply.

I am offering $150 for the day (negotiable for experience and reel).

I am also looking for a great Sound-person. If you have someone you work well with, I am open to that as well.

Producers and actors are all industry regulars with many Network credits, and award nominations.

Please submit your resume and reels when applying, highlighting comedy experience.

This will be a really fun shoot! Great way to build a resume and add an imdb credit.
