Looking for a few cool people to jam with 1/week and see where things go. Eventually maybe play out 1/month. Influences include but are not limited to clutch, Sabbath, the sword, older thrash, some black metal. Not out to make this a living, I play for fun and have other interests + obligations. I'm 36, have decent gear, transportation, and mediocre ability. If your set list includes nickelback or linkin park please don't waste either of our time..
