SNOW PLOWING AND REMOVAL

Bobcat/Skidsteer/Loader Operator/PlowOwner Operators/Snow Shovelers (Northshore)

Do you have what it takes to battle the biggest storms and run with a team of elite snow fighters????
 We are looking for some experienced Bobcat/Skidsteer operators to run new equipment with some of the best high end attachments. We pay well and have plenty of hours to offer during the snow season.

You must be a little crazy because.....

You love to plow and want more every time.....

You have a strange obsession with the daily news just to see the weather....

You seem to think its ok to work more than 16-20 hours straight without sleep and brag about it to your friends after the storm....

You enjoy lots of coffee, fast food, or energy drinks and or whatever you can get at 2am when everything

If you have some or several of these strange tendencies we "Want You".....

We typically beat most rates of others, we offer better machines, more hours, and once you are part of the team you won't want to go anywhere else... A big plus in management is not full of jerks, you check won't bounce and we are cooler in general....

The next step.....We need to see if you fit our culture and keep up with our team????? Please email with a
