As a freelance professional photo artist celebrating three decades of photographing the unique, beautiful women of the Pacific NW, I must say, I truly believe there is nothing more beautiful and more feminine than a woman who is pregnant with child.

Scene One Studios, the Portland/Vancouver area's longest running glamour, artistic pinup and boudoir studio is inviting pregnant women, who are at least 18 years of age, to take part in an artistic pregnancy glamour shoot project, at absolutely no charge to you. I am creating a very special photo gallery section for my SOS website, featuring artistically photographed pregnant women from the greater Portland/Vancouver area, in celebration of my 30th anniversary of being a freelance professional photographer.

You may peruse several gallery pages of my anniversary year's work, and of my nearly 60 Scene One Studio photo models at the following web address: sceneonestudios.wix.com/scene-one-studios.
Be sure to click on the red tab marked MORE as there are dozens more gallery pages of my current photo art, and my SOS photo model. These pages feature my artistic, playful pinup and boudoir photo art.

Nearly all of the models featured in my website gallery are real women, first time models from the Portland/Vancouver area, with no previous modeling experience. Each had her own unrealized long-time dream to fulfill, her own reasons for wanting to experience being an SOS glamour model. I talked, guided, and directed each one of them through these amazing photo sessions.

If after viewing my website galleries you find yourself wanting to participate in this special photo art project, or your own free anniversary gallery pinup/boudoir shoot, I invite you to contact me.

Along with your free 2 hour photo shoot, you will receive hours of my editing time at no cost to you, a free thumb drive containing several of your best photographs from your shoot, and you will get your own gallery page featuring your pictures on my SOS website gallery.

This my 30th year of being a professional photographer in these parts, and as a thank you to the lovely, unique women of the Pacific NW, I am offering this anniversary package, normally valued at $500 if you were to hire me as your photographer, at zero cost to you. There is no hidden agenda, no surprises, no hidden costs to you.

Contact me by email with an introductory paragraph, stating your age, a description of yourself, your interests/hobbies as I like to create themes around each model's unique personality and interests, any modeling experience. (remember, YOU DO NOT NEED TO BE EXPERIENCED) I also ask that you include a few, clear, current, honest pictures of yourself, showing your face, hair, and figure at this time.

What a perfect way to document this stage in your life . . . I look forward to hearing from you soon.
