Other academic tasks as needed.

I am a current Physics major who is looking to make a little extra money on the side to help ease the pain of college costs. I would prefer to return all projects via email but will be open to shipping said projects given adequate notice. Rates will be individually judged as well as low (ex. $7-17/page for reports). I am not looking to start a business but rather just a supplement to my normal income. If you are pleased with my services please notify others who are in need of.
