Im looking for someone with a Tow Truck that will work with me.

My truck is parked at this motel and my friend got arrested with the key in his pocket. And he won't sign over his property to me or his mom. The motel owner has given me until this morning at 11 to tow it myself. My boyfriend and I are completely broke. Is there anyone who is willing to privately tow it and you can tow it to your house and we can have time to repay you after a few days of us finding work and it will give us a few days to figure out my key situation.

We can't afford to have it officially towed and impounded since it will continue to rack up a daily fee and and we are broke and homeless and we are living out of the truck.

Please message me thru here or text if you can help!
Thank!
