Hello, I'm a 22 year-old female college student looking for a van. Not only is my mom selling her car and everything else in her name, but I need to get out of a potential domestic abuse situation. My brother has anger problems and I need my own vehicle so that I can leave this house as soon as possible. Since I'm in college I'm not currently employed so I'm sorry to say that I can't pay for the van right away. However, since I've been made aware of my mom's decision I've been looking for a job and hope to have a payment plan for the van and/or work it off.

One of my majors is mathematics so I can tutor in mathematics, do taxes, manage money, etc. I'm also learned in baking, fitness training and being an assistant. If I can help you in any way please don't hesitate to contact me. I would greatly appreciate any help I can get, thanks in.
